WITH reference to my Circular Letter of the 29th ultimo, communicating the sanction of the Secretary of State for War to the issue "of the full marching allowance for the Soldier, provided the distance travelled in one day and night shall exceed One hundred (100) miles, or the journey be carried into a late hour of the night, and that the Troops shall not be billeted at any place on the journey whereby the allowance of 10d. for the Hot Meal will become due to the Innkeeper," I have now the honor to acquaint you that, upon the recommendation of His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief, his Lordship has been pleased to approve of a further extension of the full marching allowance being granted under the following conditions, viz:—

"If the journey exceeds 250 miles in one day and night, a second marching allowance may be issued, and a third issue of the said allowance if the journey exceeds 400 miles."

The allowance will therefore be:—

	s.	d.
For 100 miles and upwards	1	1
" 250 " "	2	2

when the Troops are not billeted.

His Lordship has also been pleased to sanction the second allowance being issued to all Troops conveyed between Liverpool and Aldershot, or between Liverpool and Woolwich, although the distance travelled be under 250 miles, provided the Men are not billeted, and the journey is performed in connection with an embarkation or disembarkation at Liverpool.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

To Officers commanding Districts,
Regiments and Depôts.

RICHARD AIREY,
Quartermaster General.

SIR,

War Department, Horse Guards, September, 1856.

THE system of numbering the Men of the Army having been lately brought under the consideration of the Secretary of State for War, I am directed by his Lordship to acquaint you, that it has been determined that a new series of numbers shall be introduced for Soldiers after the 1st October next.

You will, therefore, be pleased to issue instructions that Recruits enlisted on and after that date, when finally approved for the Regiment or Depôt under your command, shall be designated by regimental numbers commencing from one, instead of continuing the present series.

SIR,

War Department, Horse Guards, 24th September, 1856.

THE Secretary of State for War, having had under consideration the question of granting compensation to Officers who were not provided with a free passage for their Horses on the return home of the Army from the East, has decided to allow 30*l.* per Horse (exclusive of bât animals) in lieu of such free passage, and to cover any loss sustained by Staff and Regimental Officers in disposing of their chargers, with reference to the General Order issued on the subject, dated Head-Quarters, Sebastopol, 26th April last.

But in order that a general rule may prevail, and also to prevent the delay and inconvenience that would ensue from individual claims being forwarded to this Department unsupported by the necessary documents and certificates, I am directed to request that the following rules may be strictly adhered to:—

Officers of the General Staff to prefer their claims through the principal Officer of the Department to which they are attached;

Officers of the Personal Staff through the General on whose Staff they were employed;

Majors of Brigade through the General Officer to whose Brigade they were attached;

Officers of the Medical, Purveying and other Departments through their respective principal Officers;

Chaplains, officiating Clergymen, and those who held miscellaneous appointments, through the General to whose Division they were attached ;

Regimental Officers, through the Officers commanding their respective Corps.

The General and other Officers to whom the claims shall be thus sent are requested, after carefully examining them, and satisfying themselves that they are just, to embody them in the accompanying Form, and forward the same in duplicate to this Department, all necessary vouchers being attached and certificates duly signed.

Officers commanding Regiments of Cavalry and Infantry, and Corps of the Royal Artillery, &c., are not to include in their returns any Officers who held Staff appointments ; and I am to urge the necessity of full details, or, in their absence, of satisfactory explanations, being clearly given in each case, as otherwise delay in the settlement of all the claims submitted on the same Form will be the result.

I am to add, that compensation will be allowed only for the number of Horses (bât horses excepted) for which, "with an Army in the field," the issue of Forage is warranted by regulation ; and it must be shown and certified that the Horses were necessarily kept and actually foraged at the public expense within one month prior to the embarkation of the claimants.

It must furthermore be clearly proved, by certificate from the proper authorities in the East, who issued the instructions for the embarkation of Horses, that those for which compensation is claimed were not provided with passages at the expense of Government.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

To General and other Officers
Commanding, &c. &c. &c.

Your obedient Servant,

B. HAWES.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force :

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

SIR,

Horse Guards, 25th September, 1856.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief, with a view to relieve Regiments from the great expense now consequent upon the necessity of employing professed Musicians—Civilians—as Masters of Bands, has it in contemplation to recommend the establishment of a large Musical Class, as part of the education of boys sent to the Royal Military Asylum, and for the instruction of persons sent from Regiments to qualify for Bugle-Majors, Trumpet-Majors and Band Masters, and whose training would require especial time and attention.

No immediate benefit could be expected from the institution of such a Class; but it may reasonably be hoped that, in a year or two, many of the pupils would have acquired sufficient skill to assist in the work of instruction, and that, after that period, several would be eligible for the situations named, viz., Bugle-Majors, Trumpet-Majors and Band Masters.

A preliminary outlay of 500*l.* or 600*l.* would be necessary for the supply of Musical Instruments; and it is calculated that 1,000*l.* per annum would be afterwards necessary to maintain the Class, including the salary of a Director, the necessary Professors, copying and arranging Music, &c., &c., repair of Instruments, and other incidental expenses.

There are now 112 Battalions of Infantry, and 26 Regiments of Cavalry, exclusive of Artillery, Sappers, Military Train, and ten Colonial Corps.

If every Regiment would pay an original subscription of 5*l.*, and 8*l.* per annum to the Fund, ample provision would be made for all expenses.

It is unnecessary to dilate on the expected advantages of this proposition; but there is every reason to hope, that it will result in a great saving of expense to Regiments, and tend to the permanent efficiency of Regimental Bands.

His Royal Highness requests to be favoured with your opinion on this subject.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

G. A. WETHERALL,

Adjutant-General.

Commanding Officers of Regiments from the Crimea will transmit, without delay, to the Adjutant-General, reports whether or not the men of their Regiments are in possession of their Chacos, and if not, to state in detail the reasons for such, and the measures which have been taken for obtaining them.

Commanding Officers of all Regiments will send in a report whether the Equipment of their Regiment is complete ; if not, to state what articles are deficient, and what are of new patterns and of old respectively.

By Command.

Adjutant-General.

GENERAL ORDER. No. 679.

Horse Guards, 2nd October, 1856.

The Queen desires to make known to the Army her sincere grief at the loss of that great and eminent soldier, Field Marshal Viscount Hardinge.

A few weeks only have elapsed since, yielding to the request of the Field Marshal, whose health had given way under the arduous duties of his office, the Queen reluctantly accepted his resignation of the Chief Command of her Army.

The assiduous labour of a long public and eventful career, during which Viscount Hardinge held some of the highest offices of the State, terminated, too soon, a life fertile in resources, and of unwearied perseverance and devotion to duty.

The Queen has a high and grateful sense of Lord Hardinge's valuable and unremitting services, and in his death deplores the loss of a true and devoted friend.

No Sovereign ever possessed a more honest and faithful counsellor, or a more loyal, fearless, and devoted servant.

His Royal Highness, Commanding-in-Chief, has a gratification in publishing Her Majesty's feelings and sentiments (in which he sincerely participates) on this melancholy occasion, and is confident that the Army will equally lament the loss of one whose whole mind was applied to the promotion of their efficiency and welfare.

By Command of His Royal Highness

THE GENERAL COMMANDING-IN-CHIEF,

G. A. WETHERALL,

Adjutant-General.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM.

Horse Guards, 13th October, 1856.

THE system which has hitherto prevailed for the formation of Regiments of Infantry into Service and Depot Companies will cease, and the following be substituted, Regiments at home being also formed into two portions, like those abroad.

2. Each Regiment of Infantry, excepting Regiments serving in the East Indies, and Local Corps, is to be divided as follows, viz. :—

	Lt. Col.	Majors.	Captains.	Lieuts.	Ensigns.	Staff.	Serjeants.	Drummers.	Rank and File.
8 Service Companies.	1	2	8	10	6	6 =	46	17	800
4 Depot Companies.			4	4	4	0 =	10	4	200
	1	2	12	14	10	6 =	56	21	1000

3. The former will, when the Regiment is at home, and remains over its strength, as now in many instances, bear 50 supernumerary Rank and File, until they are absorbed in the regular Establishment, and until which recruiting will cease. In cases where a Regiment, the Service Companies of which are abroad, has supernumeraries, they are to be borne by the Depot until absorbed.

4. The following Regiments will, however, be excepted at present, and until relieved from Foreign Service, will remain as they are now divided, viz., the 12th, 26th, 36th, 37th, 45th, 58th, 59th, 65th, 67th, 69th, and 91st Foot.

5. The men composing the Service Companies must be carefully selected, and none but those in every respect fit for immediate service be retained with them.

6. In order to ensure the continued efficiency of the Service Companies at home, and their readiness for immediate embarkation, Officers commanding Corps in the United Kingdom will notify to the Adjutant-General, on the 1st of each month, all casualties, and report such medical cases as, in the opinion of the Surgeon, will render the patient unfit for field duty eventually, the object being to keep the Head Quarters at all times ready for active service, and unencumbered with useless men or materiel.

7. Depot Companies of Regiments will be formed into Battalions, under Officers specially appointed to command them. All recruits will be sent to these Depôts, there to be trained and qualified to take their places in the ranks of the Service Companies; and all men fit only for home duty, or proposed to be invalided, or who, from various causes, are unfit to endure the fatigues of service, or the wear of tropical climates, will belong to the Depot. Men of bad character, and those under punishment, are not to be sent to the Depot. All such are best controlled at Head Quarters, and should any of this description be sent to the Depot, except from other causes, a special report will be made to the Inspector General of Infantry.

8. No man is to be sent to Head Quarters, who has not been thoroughly drilled, and well instructed in the use of his rifle.

9. The whole of the Records, Attestations, &c., are to be in charge of the Officers in command of the Depôt Companies, and authenticated copies sent to the Service Companies with the men when transferred.

10. The Records are to be kept by the senior Officer of each Depôt, under the supervision of the Officer commanding the Battalion, who will be responsible for their correctness. The Attestations are to be filled up and kept by the Battalion Paymaster, and the third page of each is to be an exact copy, not an abstract, of the original Record.

11. Saving Bank Accounts will form no part of Consolidated Battalion Accounts; they will be kept separately by the Officers commanding the Depôts. A clerk will be selected for these purposes.

12. Where it is practicable, a separate orderly room will be allotted to each Depôt, or one room for all the Depôts forming a Battalion, in which the duties referred to, and in paragraph 37, may be concurrently conducted.

13. Vacancies occurring among the non-commissioned Officers are to be filled up by the promotion of the most deserving individuals in the Regiment, when it is serving at home, or, where ready communication can be had with Head Quarters, when the Service Companies are abroad. In other cases, the Officer commanding the Depôt Battalion will exercise his own discretion in filling up vacancies at the Depôt from the men with the Battalion, belonging, of course, to the Regiment in which the vacancy occurs, and paying due deference to the recommendation of the senior Officer of each regimental Depôt.

14. Officers employed on the recruiting service, or at the Royal Military College, are to be considered as belonging to the Depôt, and are to be reported accordingly in the proper column in the returns.

15. All newly appointed Officers are to join the Depôts, and Officers will be sent to the Service Companies to fill vacancies according to their position on the roster.

16. In cases of exchange the Officer will, according to the rule of the Service, join that portion of the Regiment to which the Officer with whom he exchanged belonged.

17. When Officers return home from foreign service on sick certificate, and their absence, on that account, exceeds six months, they will be attached to the Depôt, and their places be filled by Officers of corresponding rank from the Depôt.

18. Officers returning home on private affairs are not to be placed on the strength of the Depôt, without the special permission of His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief.

19. The Officer commanding the Depôt Battalion is not to leave to the senior Captain of each Depôt the selection of men to be sent to the Service Companies, but will himself regulate the detachments according to the date of enlistment of the recruits, provided they are in all respects fit for service.

20. With a view to prevent any misunderstanding or delay, and in order that every Officer may be prepared to take his tour of duty when instructions are received for him to join the Service Companies, a roster is to be kept of the Officers with the several ranks with the Depôt Companies, and it is to be considered as a general rule that such Officers as may have been for the longest period at home, or absent from the Service Companies, whether on leave or with the Depôt, shall be the first to proceed to the Service Companies.

21. To ensure a due observance of these Orders, it is directed that, on the left side of the names of the Captains, Lieutenants and Ensigns respectively, in the monthly returns and effective states of the Depot Companies, the figures 1, 2, 3, &c., are to be marked in red ink, denoting the regular succession of officers of each rank to join the Service Companies; and the date of their joining the Depot is also to be inserted in the Monthly Returns, in the column appropriated for that purpose.

22. The formation of Bands of Music at the quarters of Depôts is strictly forbidden, and the instructions contained in the Circular Memorandum of 12th February, 1845, are to be enforced. Four drummers being allowed on the establishment of Depôts, six acting drummers will be permitted, thus giving ten drummers and acting drummers, a number considered sufficient to meet the demands which may occasionally be made by the Service Companies.

23. As under the system of forming Depôts into Battalions, a Staff will be authorized for each Battalion, the Major and Assistant Surgeon, heretofore posted to the Depot, will remain with Head Quarters, and no acting regimental Staff, either of Officers or non-commissioned Officers, will be required.

24. The returns formerly prescribed to be furnished by the Service and Depot Companies respectively, when the Head Quarters were abroad, will also be furnished where both portions of the regiment are at home.

25. Commanding Officers of Depot Battalions cannot have too strong a sense of the importance of their commands. The efficiency of the Service Companies of Regiments, a matter of first importance, will in a great degree depend upon their exertions and abilities.

26. All young Officers will, in the first instance (as directed in Article 15), join their respective Depôts, there to be taught the rudiments of their profession; and on the degree of attention paid to their instruction will depend their future advancement, and their value as Officers.

27. Exclusive of the ordinary drill, Commanding Officers will be held responsible that all are well acquainted with those parts of their duty contained in paragraphs 1 to 9 inclusive, of the Circular Memorandum dated 4th July, 1851; and for this purpose it is incumbent upon them to assemble the Officers at least once a week to be examined, by the Majors or themselves, on the subjects there enumerated. Commanding Officers should also encourage young Officers to qualify themselves in the higher branches stated in the Circular above alluded to, without a knowledge of which they cannot expect promotion. If any Officer especially distinguishes himself by zeal in the acquisition of professional knowledge, and is considered to be a competent instructor of others, a special report is to be made to the Inspector General.

28. The system of "squadding" should never be lost sight of. Every Subaltern and Serjeant should possess a squad-book, containing the names and numbers of each man in his squad, together with the numbers of his arms and accoutrements, which, under the Order of 17th April, 1856, should be the same. They are expected to be acquainted with all men of the squad, and to give an account of them when required.

29. Commanding Officers of Regiments will nominate as the senior Officer of the Depot the Captain whom they may consider best qualified for the post, without reference to his standing in the Regiment; the other three Captains will, in the first instance, be the three juniors of that rank.

30. Although regimental Depôts are only component parts of the Battalion to which they belong, and to be dealt with by Commanding Officers as the Companies of any other Regiment, the utmost latitude, consistent with the supreme control of the Commanding Officer, should be given to the senior Officer of each. To this end, the Captains, or Officers commanding companies will, in the exercise of their authority in punishing defaulters, submit the crimes and punishments awarded to the senior Officer of the Depôt for his sanction and advice, who, having approved or amended the awards, as he may think proper, will lay them before the Commanding Officer of the Battalion, in the usual manner, for his information and control. Such discretionary punishments, after being approved, will be entered in the Company Defaulter Book by the Officer commanding the Company, in his own handwriting.

31. The daily payment of the men is a matter of paramount importance, and will always be done by an Officer of the Company personally, and immediately after morning parade.

32. The drill of recruits and others is to be carried on as far as practicable regimentally, i.e. the recruits of each regiment will form separate squads, and be instructed by their own drill serjeants; the whole being, of course, under the superintendence of the Commanding Officer of the Battalion, or Adjutant, who by this means will have an opportunity of ascertaining the progress of, and attention paid to Depôts respectively.

33. Officers commanding Depôt Battalions will exercise the Depôts frequently and regularly as a Battalion; practising them in Battalion movements and duties of Light Infantry, as prescribed by the "Regulations for the Field Exercise and Evolutions of the Army," so as to render all the men as efficient as possible, and ready at any moment to take their place in the ranks of the Service Companies.

34. Depôt Battalions are schools of instruction for officers and men; they are also formed to ensure uniformity of system throughout the Army, and, whilst every encouragement will be given to maintain that esprit de corps which induces regiments to rival each other in good conduct, efficiency and dress, every check will be applied to regimental peculiarities which may have crept into the Service unauthorizedly, and to which Commanding Officers will especially direct their attention, as well as to those minute details of drill and interior economy which, though of the first importance, have often been neglected or misunderstood.

35. Care has been taken to select Officers qualified for the instruction of those under his command; but so important is their office that, if any should hereafter be found unequal to the discharge of their onerous duties, either from natural deficiency, or as wanting moral courage to carry them out, it will be imperative to replace them.

36. If there is any want of zeal in the Staff Officers, or in the Officers belonging to the Battalion, it should be brought to the notice of the General Commanding-in-Chief, through the Inspector General of Infantry.

37. As a general rule, the correspondence of Depôt Battalions will be regulated as follows, viz.:—

- 1st. All matters of immediate discipline, requiring the cognizance of Garrison or District Courts-martial, will be submitted to the Officer commanding the Battalion, for the decision of the General Officer commanding the nearest station or division.

2nd. All applications for leave of absence will be similarly transmitted.

3rd. All matters, whether emanating from a Regimental Depôt, and affecting it only,—or applicable to the whole Battalion,—involving a change of system or arrangement, or containing suggestions for the proposed benefit of the service generally,—will be referred by the Commanding Officer to the Inspector-General of Infantry.

38. All periodical inspections of Depôt Battalions will be made by the Inspector General of Infantry.

39. When more Battalions than one are quartered at a station, the senior Officer will exercise supreme command in all matters not purely of a Battalion or Regimental nature; he will occasionally exercise the Battalion in brigade, and perform all other duties which by the rules of the Service devolve upon Officers so placed.

By Command.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

SIR,

War Department, Pall Mall, 9th May, 1856.

I HAVE the honour, by order of the Secretary of State for War, to acquaint you, that from and after the 1st ultimo, the allowance for hire of furniture, granted under Art. 20, p. 16, of the Royal Warrant of 1848, to Officers of the General and Medical Staff occupying unfurnished houses or apartments belonging to or at the disposal of Government, shall be limited to two-thirds of the rates of the allowance specified in the preceding Article; and any charge for the same must invariably be supported by a certificate that the amount claimed was actually and necessarily expended in the hire of furniture for the period.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

H. R. DREWRY.

Commanding Districts.

MEMORANDUM.

A.—55.

Horse Guards, 21st October, 1856.

THE accompanying Extract from the War Office Circular, dated 23rd November, 1829, No. 649, defining the crimes which come within the category of "Disgraceful Conduct," is republished for general information and guidance.

By Command.

G. A. WETHERALL,

Adjutant-General.

"I have further to call your attention to the amendment made in the 70th Article of War, in which 'Disgraceful Conduct' is declared to mean any offence of a disgraceful character; and that Soldiers may be tried under this Article for repeated offences, which may render them unworthy of being retained in the Service from vice or misconduct.

"The penalty of forfeiture of Pension for Disgraceful Conduct was introduced into the Mutiny Act of this year in consequence of numerous instances having occurred in which Soldiers guilty of infamous and vicious crimes, and disgracefully discharged for such crimes, were pensioned for life.

"In order that the practical application of the words 'Disgraceful Conduct' and offences of a 'disgraceful character' may be liable to the least possible misconception, and that Soldiers guilty of unmilitary conduct, of neglect of duty, and of other offences distinctly specified in the Articles of War, may not be tried under and be subject to the penalties of this charge, I have to state that 'Disgraceful Conduct' implies confirmed vice, and all unnatural propensities, indecent assaults, repeated thefts and dishonesty, ferocity in having maimed other Soldiers or persons, self-mutilation, tampering with the eyes, and all cases of confirmed malingering, where the conduct is proved to be so irreclaimably vicious as to render the offender unworthy to remain in the Army.

"If the misconduct be unsoldierlike or immoral (divested of infamy), and the particular offence be not specified in any Article of War, in such case a remedy for the punishment of the offence is provided for by the 67th Article of War."

I have, &c.,

(Signed)

H. HARDING.

All applications, therefore, for grants of land from Officers resident in those Colonies must henceforth be made to the local authorities.

PROSPECTUS of the next Examination for Admission to the ROYAL MILITARY ACADEMY at Woolwich.

N.B.—No more direct Appointments will be made to Provisional Commissions in the Royal Artillery.

War Department, Pall Mall, 14th November, 1856.

AN Examination for the admission of Cadets to the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich will be held in London in the month of June, 1857.

Provided a sufficient number are found competent, thirty admissions will be made to that Institution; candidates must be between the ages of 17 and 20 years. Those, however, who have not exceeded 20 years of age on the 1st January next, will not be considered disqualified. The successful candidates will remain under instruction until they are sufficiently advanced in scientific knowledge to pass a satisfactory examination, and they will then receive Commissions in the Royal Artillery or Royal Engineers. They will be required to pay a sum of 22*l.* 10*s.* on admission, to cover the expense of uniform, books, &c., and a contribution of 62*l.* 10*s.* for each half-year of the time during which they remain at the Academy. The half-yearly contributions, however, for sons and orphans of Naval and Military Officers, will be regulated at the following rates, as heretofore:—

For sons of Admirals and of Generals having Regiments ..	£40
„ sons of Generals without Regiments	35
„ sons of Captains and Commanders of the Navy, and of Colonels and Regimental Field Officers of the Army ..	30
„ sons of all officers of the Navy and Army under the above ranks	20
„ sons of Officers of the Army and Navy who have died in the service, and whose families are proved to be left in pecuniary distress	10

The sons of General Officers paid only on their Commissions as Field Officers will pay the same contribution as the sons of Field Officers.

The sons of Officers on full and half-pay will pay alike; but the sons of Officers who have voluntarily retired on half-pay, or received the difference, will only be admitted on the terms prescribed for the sons of private gentlemen, viz., 62*l.* 10*s.* for each half-year.

The sons of Officers of the Civil Departments of the Army are admissible to the Academy, upon the same terms as those prescribed for the sons of Naval and Military Officers.

The admissions will be determined by the result of a competitive examination, the subjects of which will be as follows:—

	Marks.
Pure and Mixed Mathematics, i.e. , Statics, Dynamics and Hydrostatics	3,500
English Language, Literature, Composition, History and Geography	1,250
Language, Literature, Geography, and History of Ancient Rome, and of Ancient Greece	1,750
Ditto ditto ditto of France ..	1,000
Ditto ditto ditto of Germany ..	750

(The examination in French and German will be both written and visá voce.)

Experimental Sciences, i.e. , Chemistry, Heat, Electricity, including Magnetism	1,000
--	-------

Natural Sciences, Mineralogy and Geology	750
--	-----

Moral and Political Sciences	1,000
--------------------------------------	-------

Drawing. i.e. , Elementary Geometrical Drawing, including the use of Drawing Instruments, and either Machinery, Architectural, Engineering or Landscape Drawing	1,000
--	-------

No candidate will be allowed to be examined in more than five subjects, of which one must be Mathematics, and no one who does not obtain at least one-fifth of the allotted number of marks in this subject will be eligible for an appointment.

From the other subjects of examination each candidate may select those in which he desires to be examined; but no one will be allowed to count the marks gained in any subject, unless those marks shall at least amount to one-sixth of the total number of marks allotted to that subject.

No candidate will be admitted into the Royal Military Academy unless he obtain an aggregate of 3,000 marks at least.

Any candidate who shall not select French and Drawing among the subjects for his examination, will be required to satisfy the examiners that he has such knowledge, at least of the elements of those two subjects, as shall afford reasonable expectation that he will perfect himself in both during his residence at the Academy.

The following papers will be required to be transmitted by each gentleman to the War Department, before the 1st June, with his application to be noted as a candidate, unless he shall notify that he has been a candidate at a previous examination, in which case the statement of subjects only need accompany the application :—

1st. An extract from the register of his baptism, or, in default of that, a certificate verified by affidavit.

2nd. A certificate of good moral character, signed by a clergyman of the parish to which he belongs, and by the tutor or head of the school or college at which he has received his education for at least two years, or such other proof of good moral character as will be satisfactory to the Secretary of State.

3rd. A statement of the subjects of examination in which (in addition to Mathematics) he may desire to be examined.

The following Appointment is substituted for that which appeared in the Gazette of the 28th of October last.

6 West York —Charles Musgrave Norris, Lieut. vice Maher, app.
to the Glamorganshire Mil.27 Sept. 1856

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force :

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.
